The Carry-Ons upcoming record, "Is Anyone Listening?", is set for release March 20, 2008. Coincidentally, that happens to be the same night we play, The Muse, with Creeping Cruds and The Independents. 7pm. No Fucking Bullshit!!!! This album fucking rocks. You have the chance to set a trend instead of waiting around to see if it is acceptable to like The Carry-Ons. A chance to say "I knew The Carry-Ons before they wore eyeliner, did split kicks, and blew kisses at the camera." Until then, you may listen to our new single, "The War Is Over", now. Please feel free to rate and/or leave comments. Help The Carry-Ons spread the word and always listen to Stik Man Radio.
