Title : jax jello

Lyrics :

i dont wanna hear it, i dont wanna see it,
but i hear it. its always on my mind.
another fuckin day the same fuckin way in united states of sexual humiliation.
i wanna smash it all crush city hall, no where left to go,back against the wall, just a jax jello.....

you wanna know what its all about? do yourself a favor and shut your mouth,in one ear out the other dont you know the scene stars right here!!

full view of better humanz crimez but can i claim it aint mine?
no where left to go back against the wall iam i all alone?no?just a jax jello!!!

you wanna know what its all about? do yourself a favor and shut your fuckin mouth,in one ear out the other, dont you know the scene stars right here!!
