Title : I come home

Lyrics :

Come I after long once again home
There you twist your head
You rub yourself your hands and laugh at me
Ask me what I?m going to cook

To light a cigarette this is impossible
And to drink a beer sowiso
Well I know what you think
We?ve talked about it so many times!

To tell with the attempt what I?ve (i have) done
You? re talking all the time
Instead of listening to complain,
I should be having a bottle of red wine

In the garage I suffered one shock
Him cry are away and who sees there squats
You thought i wouldn?t notice your cheap tricks
You lame bitch!

And that's why I'm getting out, moving away, out of this house, I'm going to leave into the great wide world and that's how it's going to be
