Title : Don't Sit Next To Me Just Because I'm Asian

Lyrics :

Growing up in high school, I thought I was a popular guy but then I realized something new it made me want to cry inside people are using me for my brain they don't care about who I am that's when I say Don't sit next to me, Just because I'm Asian So this guy he sits next to me,. but he doesn't know I know what he's thinking so I fill out my scantron and then I erase and the poor guy fails his final chance to graduate and people all think we're smart, but I don't want to be your friend if all you see me for is my intelligent brain and I say DON'T SIT NEXT TO ME JUST BECAUSE I'M ASIAN!
