Title : Necrophilia

Lyrics :

Maybe if I slit your throat you'll be convinced to love me I've got a rusty razor blade that says that you'll grow to be incisions must be accurate in this corpse I will confide my hands tremble and my heart floats as I build my perfect bride

(Why don't you love me anymore?)
the chainsaw's rusty grind
(why don't you love me anymore?)
will make you change your mind

My lovely lifeless angel I'd bet I could take your life but I could give it back to you if you become my wife

1,000 volts of lightning hooked up to my machine oh mary, lady frankenstien now you belong to me

(why don't you love me anymore)
I'll make this woman mine
(why don't you love me anymore)
Even if she has to die
