Lyrics :

why do you haunt me dont you feel this pain in me you hold the heart and crush it i call for you, there is no response well i guess that i dont blame you because i stuck you with the eye of the dead

when will we stop and
when will we pray
only when we're done playing
this sick game we play

what did you expect of this animal kill, your the predator bring me down to where understand this is how i dwell let it bleed

the love that you have with the pain that you feel can you survive the unreal i have gone.....
