Title : The Justice League

Lyrics :

Captain Ameri-corp. has gone insane, his "bleeding" heart has cauterized. A regime change with antibodies to deploy. With secrets hidden from the body in the confines of the mind, we've become the legion of doom committing fucking whore crimes.

A super villian has taken away freedom, the justice league aint here today. Lets do our job and save ourselves America has gone to hell and I dont want to be on that boat. They wont spare no one whos not wearing an ascot. the world has their sites on the land of conspiracy. If all of their intentions are derogatory, where's the fucking Justice League?
