Title : a vampiracy love

Lyrics :

Drink of my blood
Take of my soul
Take our two halves
And make them one whole
Under the light of the moon
Gaze into my eyes
Go past the deceiving, conning, and lies

Staring at each
With the passion of the wind
Take my hand as we take flight
Hand in hand
Soul in soul
You've taken my broken heart
and have made it whole
Once again...

Forever together
Just take this last step
You have to trust me
No reason to fret
Slit of your wrist
And then bite mine
Come on you can do it
We'll both be fine
Now drink of each other
Become my only lover
Through all eternity

Staring at each
With the passion of the wind
Take my hand as we take flight
Hand in hand
Soul in soul
You've taken my broken heart
and have made it whole
Once again...

Can't you see
We'll never feel pain
Never see death
For we won't be human
No earthly meaning left
Now we're together
Now we take flight
Together soaring
The dark skies of night

Staring at each
With the passion of the wind
Take my hand as we take flight
Hand in hand
Soul in soul
and have made it whole
Once again...
