Title : cutters lullaby

Lyrics :

Go to sleep, and close your eyes,
And dream of broken butterflies
That tore their wings against a thorn.
You know the pain that they have borne.

the pain dont hurt when it all you've ever felt
ya kinda get used ta livin in hell
when no one gets you its seems so un fair
you feel like screaming and ripping out your hair
but its ok just use your blade
view the scars that you have made Silver metal, shine so bright.
Scarlet blood, that feels so right.
Dream of that blood trickling down,
And wake up just before you drown.

the pain dont hurt when it all you've ever felt
ya kinda get used ta livin in hell
when no one gets you its seems so un fair
you feel like screaming and ripping out your hair
but its ok just use your blade
view the scars that you have made

The moonlight's shining off your tears
As you bleed out your own worst fears.
So tonight when you start to cry Whisper the cutters' lullaby:

the pain dont hurt when it all you've ever felt
ya kinda get used ta livin in hell
when no one gets you its seems so un fair
you feel like screaming and ripping out your hair
but its ok just use your blade
view the scars that you have made Hushabye baby, you're almost dead.
You don't have a pulse and your pillow is red.
Your family hates you, your friends let you bleed.
Sleep tight with a knife, cause it's all that you need.

the pain dont hurt when it all you've ever felt
ya kinda get used ta livin in hell
when no one gets you its seems so un fair
you feel like screaming and ripping out your hair
but its ok just use your blade
view the scars that you have made

Rockabye baby, broken and scarred.
You didn't know that life would be this hard.
Time to end the pain that you hid so well,
And down will come baby, straight back to hell
