Title : SABOTAGE

Lyrics :

sabotage

sacrificed

in every move i'm makin'

lost too much

waiting for something

..for better days

but now i'm going down

i don't feel like planning all my life

'cause i would always come undone..

i'm still waiting

but waiting isn't right

i feel like i'm living a sabotage

same old game

fingers crossed for many things

concentrated

locked in my room

anyway too afraid of losin' time..
