Title : God For President

Lyrics :

God For President

(by Kyle Robinson)

It's a fucked up time to live in America, sarcastically calling it the land of the free. This is my time to live in America I'll spend my time "being all I can Be".

God please help me.

God please help humanity.

God please kill me.

God why are'nt you listening to me!

All of your prayers fall on Gods deaf ears, he has'nt heard a single word after all of these years. He's stupid, he's lazy, and he dose'nt give a shit. God is the perfect candidate for president.

Here's what my country said today, world war 3 is on its way. It dose'nt matter what the people say cause there's no US in USA.

Today is the worst day to live in America, every other country hates us even more than I do. Buy a truck, buy a flag, vote republican, hate a fag, do all of these things or America will dispise you.

God can't read your head.

God can't see you knelt down by your bed.

God doese'nt hear what you said.

It's time to accept that your GOD IS DEAD!

All of your prayers fall on Gods deaf ears, he has'nt heard a single word after all of these years. He's stupid, he's lazy, and he dose'nt give a shit. God is the perfect candidate for president.

Here's what my country said today, world war 3 is on its way. It dose'nt matter what the people say cause there's no US in USA.

There's no US in USA! (x11)

There's no US in U... S... Fuckin' A
