Title : Safe In Hell

Lyrics :

Safe In Hell

(by Kyle Robinson)

1 2 3 4

Dark days are'nt far ahead I know, everybody will soon be dead.
Then the skys will be black real soon then, everybody else will know it too.

And I don't know if death will be blessing me, cause I'll be safe in hell. (x2)

Dark days are soon to come when, everybodys face goes numb.
Your god will rain down flames while, me and lucifer play games.

And I don't know if death will be blessing me, cause I'll be safe in hell. (x2)

Dark days are soon to come when
Dark days are soon to come (x2)
