Violence

(by Kyle Robinson)

I don't like what you say behind my back or to my face, it doesn't matter any way. I'm not scared of anyone!

There's no better place than here, there's no better time than now, it doesn't matter. Just Bring a knife or bring a gun!

Don't pretend to be hardcore until the body hits the floor,
I couldn't dream of nothing more. Violence is so much fun!

No ones safe from the violence!
Don't be scared cause you know it will be here soon.
No ones safe from the violence!
You won't be spared cause you know it will kill you to!

Torn in half at the waist I hate your eyes I hate your face, watch you bleed all over the place. I'm not scared of anyone!

Your life is shit and now our screwed no more cigarettes and no more booze, the only thing you had to lose. Time to say good bye ol' chum!

I'll turn your face into a make, a pint of blood to fill my flask,
I enjoyed myself don't ask. Violence is so much fun!

No ones safe from the violence!
Don't be scared cause you know it will be here soon.
No ones safe from the violence!
You won't be spared cause you know it will kill you to!
