We Are The Ones
(by Kyle Robinson)

Well... When I was young I never thought I would be the man that I am now, what happened to me.
I guess I thought I had nothing to lose,
getting fucked up abusing drugs and booze.

But when I step and look at my life,
I can't blame myself for all the drunk nights.
It's just who we are, it's what we do,
at least we're who do it right.

We are the ones...
who waste away while getting drunk.
We are the ones...
who's priority is having fun.
We are the ones...
We're not like you, we're fucking dumb.
We are the ones...
Yeah.. We're the ones...

Well... I never thought It would happen to me,
but I'm glad I did cause know I see.
What is wrong with everyone else
who never had this help to express themselves.

If you gonna try your luck you better get your rest
if you wanna lose your head then be my guest.
But take it from us, take it from me,
cause we're the ones who do it best.

We are the ones...
who waste away while getting drunk.
We are the ones...
We are the ones...
We're not like you, we're fucking dumb.
We are the ones...
Yeah.. We're the ones.
