Title : Ruins of Pompeii

Lyrics :

intro

Gotta go before its all over Gotta go before its to late Other wise i not coming home tonight I'M TOO YOUNG TO DIE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

things aren't as great as they used to be the world has changed a lot but so have i adapt quickly but when worst comes to wost I'm not gonna be able to adapt quickly enough government needs to get off its lazy ass and care more Not just about them but other people we still exist you know? and if they don't act soon they've sealed our fate doom yeah there drugs and shooting but thats not the issue I'm talking about its bigger a lot bigger and its set on a collision course with earth doomsday is coming bringing fire rain and death

If no one tries to stop it humanity won't be around much longer no one is safe nothing can provide enough protection guitar solo

it may not happen tomorrow It may not happen for a hundred years but it is coming so grab life while you still can before its too late to turn back we all will die one way or another weather in a fiery explosion of a hospital bed, but the end is near bridge

I'm not ready to die but then again who is its the next great adventure on that i want to begin alone what happens after that fate full day is a mystery

but i don't want to find out yet another guitar solo (think of Nedra and Eri when you write these thing)
