Title : darkness

Lyrics :

We will sail on
Forever on to the land of the evening star

Into the endless we ride unveil the darkness behind
Abandoned glory hidden castaway we ride
Now will the sky surrender forever through the never
A silent whisper echoes through my restless heart tonight

I will see the glory rise
We'll be one tonight
Don't you shut your eyes in silence
Tonight gather near, come and live your fear

In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
You live for the right to be free

We will sail on
Forever on to the land of the evening star
In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
The land of the evening star

Now and forever after
Asylums filled with laughter
Suspicion haunts my dreams
An echo through my mind

This starlit gaze reminds me
Are you so blind you can't see
The winds of change my friend
Will blow for you in the dead night

I will see glory rise
We'll be one tonight
Don't you shut your eyes in silence
Tonight gather near, come and live your fear

In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
You live for the right to be free

We will sail on
Forever on to the land of the evening star
In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
The land of the evening star

In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
You live for the right to be free

We will sail on
Forever on to the land of the evening star
In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
The land of the evening star
