Title : The Effects of War and Love

Lyrics :

Chorus 1 (spoken softly up until 'that')

What is going on?
Where does this fit in?
When does it end?
Who is this about?
Why would they do that?

Somethingâ€™s happened somethingâ€™s change
Its change the way we feel
Somethingâ€™s different somethingâ€™s weird
Itâ€™s a bike without some wheels

Speaking
And changing
And acting the worst
In the world

Chorus 2
The bad things,
The effects,
The torturous earth
Of today
We must save
Toâ€™ge---ther

This is somethinâ€™
That we must fix
Love is gone
And hate has moved in
Once again I will ask
Why are we here
Here in this big mess
Of torture and tears
No one
Has told me
A way to Avoid
No one
Has shown me
The way to survive

I stand alone in this big mess of a world
One that we must pass through
The only thing that is with is you
hopefully youll stand by me until
I die----- into ashes

Chorus 2 repeat once

You----- are----- my----- sa-----vior-----
The one who tells it all---
I will trust you to get me through-----

The war
And the rage
And the strife
They put----- me through
In tough----- times----

Chorus 2

Now I will say goodbye
As the tortures----- die
You have saved me
When I cried
I trusted
You reacted
You saved me my life
I die now you
As we put away the strife

The key
Was only
The way of
The world

Chorus 2

Goodbye
My love
A kiss
In life
Fades away
As I go
With---- a heart

Chorus 1

Chorus 2 repeat til faded
