Title : Welcome

Lyrics :

Why should I live here?

where everyone lives in lies,

Why should I be the one?

This slavery closes my eyes.

Thereâ€™s only one thing to say:

You must be good, you must obey!

But no whatâ€™s in your heart,

Only what they command!

Is that all, what left in this fucking world?

Where did disappear kindness and love?

The sun is rising over bodies of soldiers, who fight for their countries and pride (fucking pride!)

Itâ€™s everywhere itâ€™s here, in radio, TV

One hundred percent real.

Brainwash comes to me

I rather want to say,

that the World is not so bad.

Maybe thereâ€™s another way,

so why to be so sad?

Hello! Welcome to the place, which name is simply Earth.

There govern human race,

the best from all the space

I rather want to say,

that the World is not so bad.

Maybe thereâ€™s another way,

so why to be so sad?
