Title : Bludgeoned To Death

Lyrics :

You're worthless

You plague humanity

You're nothing without me

Your curses try to get back to me, but still there's no time

Bludgeoned

You're cornered with thoughts and emotion for what I say; hope you listen

I poured out my heart to you and this is what i get

I made you smile

The doctors won't be able to recognize your fucking face

Be nothing

As your curses die

Be nothing without me

How could you think that I was joking, but i'm not

Be nothing without me

But still curses crumble, as we let this happen

How could we let this happen?

As we all look down, we cant

Because, you thought I was fucking joking, well what's funny now?

You went searching for something sacred, you found it dead

Inside your curses die
