Title : Shut eyes

Lyrics :

stand aside while I preach my lines this might be the end of your so called life there's no justice inside these walls its survival of the fittest and minority will fall cause I know you took it all for granted it wasn't me it was you who tainted lost inside you deny your lies Im the one standing waving in front of shut eyes cause no one seems to care these days we vanish in our own lies prime time TV before shut eyes no one seems to understand the reason why we're here, neither did I, just like you live to die

I kill my pain while you kill me easy way out lets blame society the guilt lays heavy on my shoulders as I as well as you trying so hard to be something that im not a puppet on a string I follow your advice wait and see what I will bring lost inside you deny their lies Im the one standing waving in front of shut eyes

why we're here, neither did i, just like you I live to die
