Title : Punks

Lyrics :

went to a party at the upper west side cause i met a girl who couldn't be denied bitch were up to no good dragged me into her neighbourhood i brought my beers but they were drinking chardonay i thought of something that would save my day picked up my phone and called my friends this mixed party doesn't make sence those punks aint good enough for us they drink, do drugs and laugh at us

went to a disco dont ask me why we knew it would suck, but we gave it a try went to buy a beer all they had was crystal champagne one of the slick ricks looked kinda mad cause i scored with a girl he never had then i heard them say those bastards gonna pay

they drink, do drugs and laugh at us

bouncer threw us out cause we didn't fit in pricks followed along to a battle they couldn't win a fist and a foot in the face the faggot put up his mace we left them bleeding in the street they said can this be our first defeat as we walked away we heard them say

they drink, do drugs and laugh at us

we, punks, are far to good for you we drink, do drugs, and laugh at you we, punks, are far to good for you
