Title : Happy meal

Lyrics :

im a walking happy meal and it makes me feel allright come undone as package deal fall a sleep at night dream about tomorrows dinner burger king or mickey ds i know i wont get thinner extra cheese and bacon greese all the things that makes me happy is unhealthy beer burgers drugs thats what i need some even might say that i am greedy when all i ever do is feed

Im a walking liqour store
and pass out at night
dream about tomorrows dinner malt whiskey will do the trick
extra vodka and tequila shots

i cant help it but im hungry giving me something to eat beware cause im not a fucking veggy i need something dead on a plate
