Title : Broken

Lyrics :

He lives alone with his hate
The only thing he can take

Shake the blood inside of him
He don't know what life's mean

He can drink only the tears
And he can heat himself fears

Fights the world night and day
He don't needs the fucking pray

Broken windows
On it's hope again

Rolls and rolls the dice of fate
Falls and falls only in a mistake

Madness...Frenesy...
Whatch the others through this things

Innocence of a short dark life
Everything can burns his mind

Now he can die alone
Little children of a black world

Broken windows
On it's hope again
