Down on Montcalm, you know I'm walking
And the billboards remind you that God is always watching
When you can't stop living without no control
Sometimes it's better to just let go
Well the gates are closed and I can't get in Open your arms for a life of sin
How can you tell me that it don't matter?
Eyes looking for you on a silvah plattah

Hah!
