I got a new song! (and I kinda wnt to call it Edward, but I need ur feedback on that first...)

And as I look out
Into the night sky,
Trying to remember
What it feels like to be together,
Arms around me,
Keeping me alive through it all,
And I'll miss you forever
Until the day we can be together
Again.
Although we've not yet met,
Until I see you again,
Until this wait is over,
And your arms are around me again,
Close enough to hear you breathe,
Letting me take my own,
Again.

Until I see you again,
I'll end all my letters:
"With all my love."
And though you'll never get them,
And I'll never sign my name,
You know its from me.
Again.

And I promise you,
I'll always love you,
More than my life itself,
With my last breath
Will come your name.

(I love you)
