Title : Black Tears

Lyrics :

Starting out,
We worked so hard,
But you know,
It's gonna get harder.
And being here
It's tearing me apart.

This ink is running out,
It can't bleed onto the page much longer,
And I know its time to go,
But first I have to say--

Staring at the half filled page,
My life laid out like an act on stage,
But the only one watching
Is you.

(This ink, this ink)

This ink is running out,
It can't bleed on the page much longer,
And I know its time to go,
But first, I gotta say goodbye.
This ink is running out,
It can't bleed on the page much longer,
And I know I have to go.
For now.

You know its harder than--

You know its harder than--

You know its harder!

This ink is running out,
I can't bleed on the page much longer,
This ink--
This ink is running out,
And I know,
I'll have to be stronger.
I can't run to you anymore!

This ink--
My life laid out.
This ink--
This ink--
(And I know, its time to go)

This ink--
Cause I can't run to you anymore...

But most importantly,
Goodnight,
Goodbye, and
I Love You.
