Title : Here to Stay

Lyrics :

Some things wrong aint nothing going to change don't back down just yell out all your rage your accusations trying to hold me down

Come against me your going to hit the ground we are the youth can't push us away we are the punks we're here to stay

Chorus

sick of all the trash telling us who to be changing our lives conforming to society what this world needs is a slap in the face got to wake up from this rat race
