Title : the end of ruination

Lyrics :

walk along heart tick step with rest of my blood drop step full of heart new heart which you give six month i feel buriedness i fall pieces
you solve me jabbing me behind of me empty heart you've given you're so fast forget me you'll never know about me where all the sweet memory i try to throw away your hunch in me

with strength of mind one matters that you've does unimpressed

you kill my pulse I'm running screaming loudly
fight against all failure I'd finished
I'd here's over
