Soulmate

Below the rainy clouds
Hangovered, down and out
I'm a faded sticker on your window
There you are in front of me
A living daylight shines on me
You make me feel as i wanna be

Don't you ever leave me
Never go away

You're the calm in my stormy world
You're the one that keeps me sane
You're the calm in my stormy world
You're the one that keeps me sane

With your eternal sunshine
That's lightning up my mind
I leave all other thoughts aside
Without you i feel broken
Like i miss a piece of me
We should be together can't you see

Don't you ever leave me
Never go away

You're the calm in my stormy world
You're the one that keeps me sane
You're the calm in my stormy world
You're the one that keeps me sane
You're the calm in my stormy world
You're the one that keeps me sane
You're the calm in my stormy world
You're the one that keeps me sane
