im writing this song with my left hand stars across the sky arent shining anymore your eyes once beautiful, now dull my words once sweet, now vengeful your thoughts simple but trite i hate the stupid sayings calling me a pessimist im insecure and im immature i believe the real i dont believe your stupid fairytales your yelling again, asking me what i am well ill tell you, im a hopeless romantic minus romantic the nightmare is back again i swear to you i hate them i made myself believe that everything that happened was for one reason so lets not make a scene lets go home composed
