I can see inside world in me but i can't define path ahead
Sometimes it burns so wild
But I forgive who blame my past

They told me to do
And this is that,
That I didn't want it for me)

I love this place, where I sing alone
And you know this is what they don't care
I was in my dream when they laughed at me
And this is part of joke they will tell

I search myself in my blinded eyes
But don't know how I am
These four wall room, is like a world to me
Cause I can see all the same
