Title : Let Me Say

Lyrics :

It was early morning,
March first two thousand three,
On the last day,
That you would ever kiss me,
It seemed like everyone,
Just wanted to go,
And I can't help,
It's such a long ride home,

But let me say,
That when I said I love you,
I mean't it everyday,
And let me say,
I think only time,
Can take these scares away,

At five thirty-eight,
I took back the heart you stole,
All winter long,
It never felt so cold,
I tried hard,
Watching you cry for me,
God I hate to wake on days like these.

But let me say,
That when I said I love you,
I mean't it everyday,
And let me say,
I think only time,
Can take these scares away.
