Title : Words

Lyrics :

Home is where the heart is,
Think it's in the words we speak,
Think that it is early,
Quiets what she said to me,

I'd like to ask a question,
To soon and she'd dismiss me,
With her head on my shoulder ,
She said we should kiss,

First thing I remember,
Is Asking for her safety,
And so long later,
She's the same the day she met me,

The earth has formed and angel,
Our paths must lie together,
My home and heart is with her,
She knows it in the words I speak,

Home is where the heart is,
Think it's in the words we speak,
Think that it is early,
Quiets what she said to me,

I'd like to ask a question,
To soon and she'd dismiss me,
With her head on my shoulder ,
She said we should kiss,

The earth has formed and angel,
Our paths must lie together,
My home and heart is with her,
She knows it in the words I speak,
