Title : HEADPAINS

Lyrics :

HEADPAINS

There's bleeding, in my head
And the pressure, makes me wanna be dead
There's pressure, way too much pressure
And problems, too many problems

Ch

What can I do? (x2)
To satisfy you

Complete silence, then come the screams
Manic action, then nothing between Taste poison, in my drink
You wrote 'I love you' in disappearing ink

We should be talking, instead of this
Or we should walk, away from this
I'm swimming, out of my depth
And feeling so inept

Bury my face, and try to hide
Nothing left, not even pride
Shut my eyes, turn out the lights
To sugar coat, the pain and spite

I have my voice, can I have your ear
I will shout loud, to make it clear
I have sight, and I have vision
I need the strength, to make decisions
