Title : nothing to nothing

I dropped my present tense at all but it wouldn't be bad just one last call live gets changed some day the time goes by so slowly

I'm so sorry for my own seems like too late sounds so wrong it's so true I feel so lost you're right I'm not in time

I damaged yours something has stolen my force I waste the words aware it might disturb
'cause it's time, I won't be running away if it's right, I'll keep it up from today
