Title : Broken Skies and despair

Lyrics :

I sit alone,
As the walls come crashing down,
I've been here before,
But I dont know my way around,
Dark corners in this room that is my life,
But I wont be sleeping tonight,

The walls are caving in,
Awake while the world is asleep,

I'm standing on the edge,
I think I'm gonna fall,
Theres something going on in my head,
I've done this wrong
Its a ten foot fall,
Broken skies and Despair,

So many nightmares in my sleep,
So many sleepless nights alone,
All the secrets that I'm trying to keep,
I dont want to go home,

The walls are caving in,
Awake while the world is asleep,

I'm standing on the edge,
I think I'm gonna fall,
Theres something going on in my head,
I've done this wrong
Its a ten foot fall,
Broken skies and Despair,
