Title : "December In A Storm"

Lyrics :

Your face is like december in a storm
or like coveing clouds at a wake.
One shot through the mirror like a light
each peice is a splinter in our mind.

I'm asleep in the bath all alone
drown myself or shock with the phone.
Your a dream in the corner of my eye
salt this wound and let me lye.

Wrap it up I can't Scream to Shine.
Wrap it up I can't Scream to Shine.
Wrap it up I can't Scream to Shine.
Wrap it up I can't Scream to Shine.

So shocking in the middle of the winter
sun shine rays against a cloud.
Note tied to a letter whispers love
all most remembered like a song.

Your face is like december in a storm.
