Title : killing spree

Lyrics :

i am on a killing spree, but the only one im killing is me. mad at this one, hating that. black trench coat, black top hat. going to kill anone but no one home, stting in the darkness, just sitting alone.walking around, trng to start trouble, smiling, then frowning, is there a double? yes im on a killing spree, killing the love i ever had, being blinded, i cant see. in a place now with padded walls and only one door, a white bed, and a cold concrete floor. im on a killing spree, but the only one im killing..... IS ME.
