Title : "fuck the fuckers"

Lyrics :

[chorus]

green dream

where does it go when you go

cant redeem

falling down to the earth

given these waxy wings

a gift from whomever

you crave more altitude

but your wings are set aflame givin the power to lynch yourself would you use this to kill others?

bring them down with your hammer

your fuel is greed

[chorus]

icarus flew to high

but was denied flight

his waxy wings burned away

flying into the sun
