Title : "sorostitute"

Lyrics :

[chorus]

when will you learn?

(its just not right) its just not right these cuts you make will always bleed regret is this what you want?

(full of shame) a future of shame your dignity escapes because you became a whore

SOROSTITUTE!

JUST ANOTHER CANCER!

a thing of beauty is what you lead yourself to think but your anity merly makes you weak you are fucked by unknown entities and cursed with unwanted fertilities death dealer- the whore that you are sickness between your legs passed on near and far the breeding grounds that you mill around its not hard to know where you'll be found

SLUT have some self-respect dont subject yourself to neglect

[chorus]

have some self respect

if not now expect remorse to take hold forever
