Title : "andy swabbed the poop deck"

Lyrics :

your father was an officer and you believe you've got something to prove but once your in a uniform you have everything to lose

there is no honor in this war

[chorus]

there is more to life then being something that you're not better to claim peace then brag about a war fought and now you're drowning underneath these crimsons seas you're being fucked like everyone else while down on your hands and knees.

different countries we invade just cant keep up with world trade this is what you die for!!!

[chorus]

this is your choice
your wrong decision
this is your death
so be content

[chorus]
